HOPE STILL REMAINING.

No Certainty of Gordon's Pute. A London dispatch says that there is still alight ground for hoping that Gordon is alive. The accounts of the different newspaper correspondents come from a commo native source. No eye-witness of the death of General Gordon is mentioned. With General Gordon were M. Hanzal, the Austrian Vice-Conzul, and twenty Creek and Levantine merchants. A firm at Alexandria, for whom the Greeks have been acting as agents, do not believe the story of the massice at Kharloum. It is known that the Mahai holds fifty Greeks anown that the Mahai holds fifty Greeks prisoners either in his camp or at El Obeid, and that they are well treated. In reply to inquiries, General Wolseley telegraphs that he has received no more authentic news than that brought to Kortl by Colonel Wilson.

Wilson.

The Cabinet to-flay approved General Lord Wolseley's plan for an early advance from Suzkin to Berber. A narrow gaugo railway will be laid to Ariab, 130 miles west of Suskin, where an intrenched camp will be formed with a central depot for stores. Leaving Ariab, the troops will proceed by forced marches to Berber. It is calculated that the advance will begin about the third week in March, and it is hoped that Berber will be reached in six weeks. Ariab, wherethe intronched camp hoped that Berber will be reached in six weeks. Arisb, where the intrenched camp is to be formed, in on the road from Saskim to Berber, and is described as a "smiling ossis," where there is good pasturage and plenty of water.

The London Standard's correspondent with General Earle's column sends the following dispatch, dated Dulka Island, Tuesday:

"The British troops advanced to attack the enemy, who held a strong position on the hills. After some fighting the enemy was completely surrounded. Finding it impossible to dislodge the rebels from their fortified position General Earle ordered the troops to charge. General Earle was killed while leading the attack. The Black Watch regiment captured the resident control to point. while leading the attack. The Black Watch regiment captured the position at the point of the bayonet, the cavalty taking possession of the enemy's camp. General Brack-cubury, upon the fall of General Earle, assumed command and ordered the remaining positions of the enemy to be stormed. The troops acted promptly, made a gallant attack, and soon captured all the enemy's positions. The fighting lasted five hours. There was great slaughter among the enemy. Those who survived escaped by swimming the river."

A Madman's wrath.

Pittsburg, Feb 12 - Wishin a few weeks Wm. Wade engaged a man to work around his house and grounds at Verons. Mrs. Wade, hearing one of her dogs howling in distress, stepped out to learn the cause, and observed the hiral man beating the valuable aurimal. No source did he see the lady then he rusbed toward her selling like a demon. "I have a mission from God to kill you." He hurled a stone as he ran and it struck her arm. This was followed by a ponderous blow of the fist, which relied the lady to the ground, and it this position he centinued the assault. The hired girl stood inside the door, undecided whether to run for help or to attack the madman.

The latter, seeing a pile of stones a few yards away, released Mrs. Wade and started toward it, evidently intending to beat her with the stones. The gril then leaped from the doorway and dragged her mistress into the house. Infuriated at this, the maniac stoned the house and shrieked in his rage. The gril stole out from another door and ran for assistance. Three men answered the summoos, and after considerable effort seemed the man, who had nearly exhausted binself. Mrs. Wade, though badly bruised and confined to her room, is not seriously injured.

A Scare in France.

Haver, Feb. 12.—There is great excitement here about a large quantity of dynamite which is supposed to be concealed in the house of a man named Donovan, an Irish ship-chandler. The dynamite is believed to come from America. Donovan's premises are surrounded by French police, who, however, refuse to allow a search to be made. Several delegates of the coming convention have stopped at Donovan's, and it was even proposed that a meeting should be held there. Michael Flauncy, one of the delegates, left last night for Dioppe, on his way to England.
